The International Baton Twirling Federation

Introduction:

The International Baton Twirling Federation has adopted the rules and regulations of the World Anti-Doping Agency (hereafter, "WADA") and the membership has approved and accepted the terms and conditions as set forth in this "CODE."

The acceptance of the Code is a mandate approved and accepted by The International Baton Twirling Federation and it is assumed that the membership of the IBTF must and will comply with these rules as agreed upon by the IBTF. It is also understood that each and every member federation must and will comply with the rules and regulations as set forth by the member respective National Olympic Committee or Sports Ministry. It is also assumed that these rules will be any less stringent than the rules in this document that are approved and accepted by the memberships of the IBTF.

The IBTF follows the rules and mandates established and set forth by the International Olympic Committee and the General Association of International Sport Federations as it applies to integrity, fair-play, and sportsmanship. With these guidelines, the IBTF understands and endorses competition in the most fair and equitable manner, including maintaining the necessity of a drug free sports environment.

The International Baton Twirling Federation will maintain its support and endorsement of these rules and policies and will assure its member a continual and constant effort of commitment to the policies, rules, regulations and protocols set forth in this Code.

For the current WADA code and regulations, it is very important to go to the World Anti-Doping Agency website for the most up-to-date Prohibited Substances and Methods:
